Like the summer camps of old Lake Tahoe, the Wolf draws from elements of the English Arts and Crafts Movement and Bay Area Craftsman styles. The design features oversized ridge vents, corbeled log brackets, tapered stone columns, and a stone water table.

The Wolf interior features 4,288 s.f., 4 bedroom, 3-1/2 bath, open dining/ Kitchen/ Great Room for spacious entertaining, Master Suite for a master. On the lower level: Play Room/Den, and a two car garage. Combined with a usonian exterior of wood and stone, and your own imagination, the Wolf delicately brings modern living into the wildlife of North America.
