The Hampton is a stunning example of transitional architecture, blending timeless elegance with modern functionality.

This three-bedroom, 3.5-bath home boasts an open floor plan that flows effortlessly into a vaulted-ceiling great room, gourmet kitchen, and inviting den.

Natural materials on the exterior—stone, wood, and glass—create a warm, luxurious curb appeal. Inside, the design emphasizes spaciousness and light, with refined finishes and thoughtful details throughout.

The Hampton's layout is ideal for both entertaining and everyday living, offering comfort, sophistication, and a seamless connection between indoor and outdoor spaces. It's a perfect balance of classic charm and contemporary style.
